ORDER DENYING COMPLAINANT'S REQUEST
FOR CONTINUANCE OF SEPTEMBER 9, 2003 HEARING

On August 26, 2003, Complainant CRAIG A. GOMES (GOMES), proceeding pro se, filed request for continuance of the September 9, 2003 hearing with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board (Board). GOMES requested a continuance until the conclusion of "the HIOSH discrimination complaint (sic) due to the continual debarment from work, pay, benefits, and company property after a sickness was resolved since July 7, 2003."

Based upon a review of the record and the arguments submitted, the Board find that Complainant has failed to establish good cause to grant an indefinite continuance in this matter. The Board therefore denies Complainant's request to continue the hearing scheduled on September 9, 2003.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, September 2, 2003.
